

Santa Fe County Night at the Santa Fe Bandstand

Santa Fe – August 5, 2013 - It's Santa Fe County night at the Santa Fe Bandstand, Tuesday, August 6th on the Plaza starting at 6:00 p.m. The County will have public information booths set up on: the County's DWI program, health programs and services, solar power and energy efficiency for homeowners, and job opportunities with the County.

The County Human Resources Division will have information on an upcoming "Public Safety Recruitment Day" for those interested in positions with the Sheriff's Department, Regional Emergency Communications Center, Corrections Department and the County Fire Department.

Enjoy great live music while learning about County services and employment opportunities.
